

Eligibility Criteria for Resident in the training program are as follows:

1. Applicants must hold at least exclusively a master's degree in medical physics.
2. The complete subscription fee for the program is USD 2000 for two years.
3. Payment is required in advance (upfront), and the amount is non-refundable if the trainee decides to withdraw from the program.
4. A commitment agreement must be signed by the trainee to complete the program.
5. Upon completion of each stage within the program, a comprehensive evaluation examination will be administered, which the participant must pass successfully to progress to the next stage.
6. Clinical training hours must not be less than 30 hours per week over two years.